

Univ. Prof. Dr.

Katja (Stanislawa Katharina) Sturm-Schnabl

Tel.: +43-1-4277-42805

E-Mail: Katja.Sturm-Schnabl@univie.ac.at

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Sturm-Schnabl
First Name: Katja (Stanislawa Katharina)
Maiden Name: Sturm
Univ. degree: Professor at the University of Vienna
Born in: Klagenfurt/Celovec (Austria) in a Slovene family

Professional experience

1984-present: University of Vienna, Institute for Slavic Studies, teaching Slovene and south Slavic literature and cultural studies

1973-1984: Austrian Academy for Science, Section for Slavic and Byzantine Studies, researcher

1973-present: regular participation at and organisation of international scientific symposia, congresses and conferences/lectures in different European countries (Austria, former Yugoslavia, Great Britain, France, Italy, former Czechoslovakia, former Soviet Union, Russia, Slovenia, Slovakia, Greece, Hungary, France, Belgium)

1973-present: translations of scientific articles and books as well as of essays (from Slovene, Serbo-Croatian, Russian, German and French into German and Slovene) (see attached bibliography)

Education/Studies

1999: University Professor
1993: Habilitation, University Docent for South Slavic Philology
1973: PhD in Slavic and Byzantine Studies

Public Functions

2002 Scientific advisor of the Slovenian Scientific Institute in Vienna – Slovenski znanstveni inštitut na Dunaju

1978-present: Member of the Advisory Board of the Union of Slovenian Organisations of Carinthia (Austria)

Member of the Advisory Board of VH Brigittenau

Member of the Advisory Board of ARGE